under this clause”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Members of both the Houses had been raising, from time to time, a demand for the delimitation of constituencies. The issue of fresh delimitation of constituencies was gone into by the Committee on Electoral Reforms which had recommended fresh delimitation without affecting the total number of constituencies allocated to various States on the basis of 1971 census. The Government had decided that fresh delimitation should be undertaken on the basis of 1991 census without affecting the existing number of seats allocated to various States on the basis of 1971 census. This requires amendment to the Constitution as at present there is a Constitutional bar with regard to delimitation of constituencies.

2. This Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid object.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Electoral reform is a continuous process and the two enactments dealing with elections to Parliament and the State Legislatures, namely, the Representation of the People Act, 1950 and the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (hereinafter referred to as “the 1951-Act”) have been amended from time to time for the purpose. Proposals for comprehensive amendments to Electoral Law received from the Election Commission and others considered by the Committee on Electoral Reforms in 1990 have been under the consideration of Government. Keeping in view the proposals received and the views expressed by the various political parties, it has been decided to bring about comprehensive amendments in the two aforementioned enactments. The present Bill seeks to give effect to the said recommendations. The salient features of the Bill are as under:

(1) Section 8 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to provide that a person convicted of an offence punishable under section 2 or section 3 of the Prevention of Insults to National Honour Act, 1971 shall be disqualified for a period of six years from the date of such conviction.

(2) It is proposed to insert a new section 20B in the 1951-Act to enable the Election Commission to nominate Observers to watch the conduct of elections and such Observers will have the power to direct the returning officers to stop the counting of votes or not to declare the result in certain contingencies like booth capturing, etc.

(3) Section 30 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to provide for the reduction of the time for campaign to 14 days.

(4) Section 33 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to provide that—

(a) nomination of a candidate not set up by a recognised political party has to be subscribed by ten persons being electors from the constituency;

(b) a person shall not be nominated as a candidate for election in more than two constituencies of the same class.

(5) Section 34 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to increase the security deposits of candidates. It is proposed to provide that for Parliament and Assembly elections the security deposit shall be five thousand rupees and for candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes two thousand five hundred rupees.

(6) Sub-section (2) of section 38 of the 1951-Act which provides for listing of the names, etc., of the contesting candidates is proposed to be amended so as to provide that for the purposes of listing, candidates shall be classified into three categories, namely, candidates of recognised political parties, candidates of registered political parties and other candidates. The said category shall be arranged in the order specified therein and the names of the candidates shall be arranged in alphabetical order.

(7) Section 52 of the 1951-Act is proposed to be amended to provide that on the death of a candidate an election shall, instead of being countermanded, only be adjourned.

(8) New Section 151A is proposed to be inserted in the 1951-Act to provide for holding of bye-elections within a period of six months from the date of occurrence of the vacancy.

(9) Certain further amendments are also proposed to ensure peaceful conduct of elections by reducing the influence of money and muscle power by prohibiting the carrying of arms, etc., on the polling day.

2. The Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objects.

NEW DELHI;

RAMAKANT D. KHALAP.

The 24th July, 1996.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

Clause 4 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 20B in the Representation of the People Act, 1951 which provides for the appointment of Observers by the Election Commission during election. It is not possible to readily estimate the exact amount which may be required for these purposes. The expenditure with regard to the appointment of Observers would however, be nominal.

2. The Bill, when enacted, is not likely to involve any other recurring or non-recurring expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of India.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 16 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 135C in the Act. Under sub-section (3) of that section spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors or other substances of a like nature found in the possession of any person are liable to confiscation and the same will be disposed of in such manner as may be laid down in the rules.

2. The matters in respect of which power is proposed to be given to the Central Government to make rules are matters of administrative detail and it is not possible to incorporate them in the Act. The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.
